Frederick Perls Dream

In Perls dream theory, there is something to be learned from all sides of the dream, and understanding of the dream can only come from taking the side of all parts of the dream in order to understand how all the pieces fit together. For instance, if you dream that you are being chased, you see the dream from your own perspective. If you then turn around and ask your pursuer why he (or she) is chasing you, you will gain another perspective.
