A Conceptual Framework for Classifying and Understanding

Design/methodology/approach The conceptual framework is drawn from the relationship marketing (RM) literature and applied to a school context in the United Kingdom. In doing so, it provides a simplified representation of the environment in which schools operate and a valuable classification structure for the many different relationships a school has. This framework will be of benefit to both academics and practitioners.

Marketing Research Conceptual Framework Simply Educate Me

Example Conceptual Framework on Marketing Research. One of the popular marketing research activities focuses on product quality and services. I illustrate product and service research with a personal experience below. A few years back, I answered a simple questionnaire soliciting my feedback on the product and services of a pizza shop. The questionnaire sought my rating of pizza taste, service speed, and the courtesy of the server.
